

Friday 15th March 2024

It's been a soggy but joyful week at Westcott!

Our School Value focus is: LOVE

OAK

Oak have been learning about the Globe Theatre and William Shakespeare. Some children have created a replica of the Globe Theatre as one piece of their homework over the past few weeks.

BIRCH

Birch class have been focusing on explanation texts and looking at the different features. They have started writing some great 'impersonal' sentences.

PRAYER SQUARE

Dear Father

I'm sorry when I make mistakes and hurt others. Please forgive me and help me make things right.

Heal my heart when I'm sad. Teach me to forgive others just like you forgave me. Thank you for your love and always giving me a fresh start.

AMEN

We had a great time on Red Nose Day!

LIME

Lime have made stained glass window crosses. We have been reflecting on the Christian belief that Jesus gave his life on the cross so we could be forgiven for the wrong choices we have made.

Collective Worship

Our Bible verse this week is from Ephesians chapter 4 verse 32:

“Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.”

We considered what tenderhearted might mean.

We also looked at these objects when thinking about forgiveness. Why not ask your child what they are about?
